

Mimi Publishing Inc. is pleased to announce the release of their first book in a series of inspirational stories.

OTTAWA, Oct. 26 /CNW/ - DO YOU BELIEVE? Children around the world are being impacted by forces beyond their control. How does a parent address these issues to a small child? Meet Mimi the Angel, a sweet angel who helps out the children create a better tomorrow. Written in a non-denominational way, Mimi the Angel teaches both young and old about hope, faith, spirituality, love, respect and goodness.

First time authors Sylvie Brûlé and Jennifer Clark wrote a book to assist parents in giving children good morals and inspire them to positive action. Illustrator Julie Lefebvre has captured the imagination of children with her magical characters and scenery.

Published by Mimi Publishing Inc., Mimi the Angel Gets Her Wings, is written for readers 3 years +, and available for purchase at $9.95 CDN.

Join us as the authors celebrate their first book launch on Saturday November 26th, 2005 at the Pinecrest Chapters location, 2735 Iris St, Ottawa, Ontario at 7:00 pm. Children's entertainers will be on hand. Open to the public.

For more information on Mimi the Angel and book signing events, visit www.mimitheangel.ca. 24 Pages. ISBN: 0-9738973-0-9.

For further information: Christine Gilmore, Mimi Publishing Inc, Event & Media Relations, (613)230-7472. media@mimitheangel.ca.