On Saturday, September 22nd, 2007 communities worldwide will participate in the thirteenth annual "Kids Day International™," a Health, Safety, and Environmental Awareness Day. Dr. David Covey will be sponsoring the event locally from 12:00 noon until 3:00 pm at Arc-En-Ciel Elementary School in Orleans.

The event will provide essential information on crime prevention, child safety, and environmental awareness. Dr. Covey's office will donate special child ID cards to every child who attends, and Ontario Child Find, working with Ottawa Police Services will be on hand to provide FREE fingerprinting for all the children. Additionally, there will be special appearances by Little Ray's Reptile Zoo, who will be joined by the Ottawa 67's mascot and Saroughi Tae Kwon Do for martial arts demonstrations. Ottawa Fire Services is bringing a fire truck and will teach fire safety tips to the children. Dr. David Covey will provide FREE health screenings, and will be have vital information on disease prevention and health promotion. "We will also provide free balloons, food and fun for everyone. There will be special give-aways and free prize drawings as well! In addition we are raising money for the Children's Wish Foundation!" says Dr. Covey.

The event is free, and "this year is especially exciting for Kids Day International™, as it is being represented nationally by celebrity spokesperson Jonathan Lipnicki, star of such films as Jerry Maguire with Tom Cruise, and Stuart Little 1 and 2" commented national event founders Drs. Theresa and Stuart Warner. "We encourage the entire community to join Dr. David Covey by participating Saturday at this unique, fun-filled community awareness event!"
